

February Newsletter 2019

Please remember Big Bedtime Read event on Wednesday 30th January Morning class 10.50 am and the afternoon class 2.15pm. Each child needs an adult at this event.

On Wednesday 6th February "Cool for School Photography" will take the children's photographs in nursery. The photographer will take family photographs, please bring siblings to nursery at the beginning of the session so family photographs can be taken if you would like one. Please sign the permission slip if you would like your child's photograph taken in nursery.

The morning class will begin Acti-sports on Thursday 7th February. The children need to wear trainers on a Thursday so they don't slip when participating in the activities.

On Wednesday 13th February we will visit Hale's fruit shop to buy healthy snacks. Each child will be given 50p from nursery fund to purchase a healthy snack. We would like as many parents/carers to join us and then return to nursery to taste a variety of healthy snacks with their child.

Nursery will be closed Friday 15th February to Friday 22nd February inclusive for the half term holidays.

Health Action Heroes will visit nursery on Tuesday 26th February. We would like each child to bring a £1 donation for Action Cancer. The children will learn about how to be healthy.

On Wednesday 6th and Thursday 7th March we will have our play and stay sessions, when a parent, grandparent or carer can join us in the classroom to play for an hour with their child. Morning class 9-10 am and the afternoon class 12.30 - 1.30 pm. We will have a variety of activities on offer developing gross and fine motor skills. Each child would love a special adult to come and play with them in nursery so please remember to come to this special event.
